

::Work in a network

For the Tunisian Association for the Defense of Children's Rights, taking into account the fundamental rights of the child requires mobilization of a broad range of actors from civil society and governments.

Therefore, all our programs will be designed and implemented in an ongoing effort to strengthen existing structures.

The capacity building of civil society can initiate dynamics of sustainable development. It is linked to the local, national and international NGO's.